Dear Friends of the Preborn,

We did it again! Tour Report on DVD!

We received such a great response from sending our report last year about our Florida Personhood Tour via DVD, that we've decided to do the same thing again this year regarding the Mississippi Personhood Tour! Since I host a tv show called In Focus, rather than the usual two pages of type and a few pictures, we are sending you a DVD of the show I did about our efforts in Mississippi. The report includes dozens of photographs, as well as video footage (it also includes a short video of botched abortions in Milwaukee).

You can also read a report about the Mississippi Personhood Tour online (where you can also see many photographs and news reports) at MissionariesToThePreborn.com.

From March 21st through April 1st, Missionaries to the Preborn conducted a Personhood Tour in the state of Mississippi. We decided to travel south and rally behind the Mississippians because "We view what the Mississippians are doing as the most strategic effort on behalf of the preborn in the nation."

This November, Mississippians will get to vote in a state-wide referendum on whether or not an Amendment should be added to the Mississippi State Constitution which declares the preborn child to be a person from the moment of fertilization.

The Supreme Court Roe v. Wade ruling in 1973 did not address the personhood of the preborn child. The majority of justices set aside that question in order to make the preborn babies open game to those who kill-for-profit. When Mississippi declares they are persons, this will create a direct challenge to Roe v. Wade.

This will also present the opportunity for magistrates in Mississippi to stand in defiance of a rogue federal government ruling. Once declared persons, by law the preborn are to be afforded legal protection against bodily harm. The federal government will no doubt demand the continuation of abortion in Mississippi. The authorities in Mississippi have a right and duty as lesser-magistrates to stand in defiance of such Federal bloodshed.

During the Tour, we traveled to over 20 cities and towns, and went to nine universities. We passed out nearly 60,000 pieces of literature!.

The people of Mississippi loved us, but we were literally run off the streets under threat of arrest in four of the cities in which we made stops. Liberty Council is bringing suit against these cities to challenge their unconstitutional ordinances. In one city, a local pastor was actually arrested. The police put the cuffs on so tight that when he was released two hours later, one of his wrists was bleeding!

The press came out at many of the stops along the Tour. This furthered our efforts by taking what we were doing beyond the street we stood on and into thousands of homes!

The Lord also used our efforts in the immediate – long before November gets here. In the city of Laurel, Mississippi, a man pulled over and walked over to talk with us. He informed us that a relative of his saw our photographs in Jackson, Mississippi the week before. “She is pregnant” he explained, “and had an appointment to get an abortion. But after seeing your photographs, she has canceled her appointment and has decided to keep her child.”

May the Lamb that was slain receive the reward of His suffering!

ACOG in Washington, D.C. - May 2nd + 3rd, 2011

For the ninth straight year, Missionaries to the Preborn will gather outside the national convention for the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG). Hundreds of abortionists belong to this licensing organization. ACOG sends their minions to both federal and state legislatures to push pro-abortion legislation.

We gather at this event to expose the complicity of ACOG with the abortion-industry in this nation, and appeal to the physicians to change ACOG’s policies.

If you are interested in participating in this effort, please contact our office at 414-462-3399.

Our Truthtruck will be making the trip.

The False-Love Gospel Continues to Deceive Millions and Further Corrupt American Christianity

By Pastor Matt Trehwella

American Christianity has lost its way. A short reading of Scripture and church history reveal just how severe the wandering has become in our day.

Consider the false-love gospel. Those who embrace it remove half of the gospel message. The false-love gospel only speaks about “believe” and “love.” They want to keep the message positive. No talk about God’s Law, sin, guilt before God, or repentance.

One Christian group even spent $150,000.00 to try and come up with a word they could replace “repent” with for their “repent and believe” media campaign. “Repent” carried negative connotations, and they wanted to keep it positive. After six months, they came to the conclusion that there was no word they could replace “repent” with that seemed positive, so they just went with the word “believe” for their campaign.

Listen, when you remove half of the gospel message, you have a false gospel. A false gospel results in false converts who then create false churches. When this false-love gospel made its debut in America about 20 years ago, it was condemned by churchmen every where, and rightly so. But now, 20 years later, it is American Christianity. It is the prevalent, most popular form of Christianity in America now.

The law of God happens to be an essential part of our declaration of God’s good news. A man needs to see that he is a sinner before he will see his need for the Savior. Galatians 3:24 says that “the law was our tutor to bring us to Christ.” Why? Because as Paul says in Roman 7:7, “I would not have known sin except through the law.” The law shows us we are sinners in need of Jesus.

Charles Spurgeon stated, “Lower the law and you dim the light by which man perceives his guilt; this is a very serious loss to the sinner rather than a gain; for it lessens the likelihood of his conviction and conversion. I say you have deprived the gospel of its ablest auxiliary [its most powerful weapon] when you have set aside the Law. You have taken away from it the schoolmaster that is to bring men to Christ.”

Francis Schaeffer stated, “If I had one hour with every man, I would spend the first 45 minutes talking to them about God’s law, and the last 15 minutes talking about His great salvation.” A man must see he is a sinner before he’ll see his need for the Savior, and the law makes him see. As the Scripture says “so that sin through the commandment might become exceedingly sinful” (Rom. 7:13).

The false-love gospel folk however, cannot abide the plain teaching of Scripture. They have always been hell-bent on creating a more consumer-friendly gospel. They like being liked and they notice people like them more when they remove God’s law, sin, guilt before God, and repentance from their gospel message. (over)

Now the false-love gospel folk feel they have improved their gospel even more. Now – you don't even have to preach at all! You just do random acts of kindness (and hope people get it). As one false-love gospel proponent recently proclaimed, “We are not truth-bearers. Our only job is to love people. It's the Holy Spirit's job to bring people truth.”

That's right, they've decided even half the gospel is too much gospel – we just need to do nice things for people. They even use a slogan – “Preach the gospel always, if necessary use words.” If necessary use words? The Scriptures teach that His Gospel is proclaimed through words! I Corinthians 1:21 makes it clear that words are essential to see men saved. “For since, in the wisdom of God, the world through wisdom did not know God, it pleased God through the foolishness of the message preached to save those who believe.”

The false-love gospel people have actually joined with the world in declaring God's means of saving man – the gospel preached – to be foolishness. I Corinthians 1:18 says “For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing.” They have decided “since the world doesn't like it and thinks it's foolish – we won't do it!”

Do you know how dire this is? Words – the words of the Gospel – are essential to seeing men saved. Paul says of the Jews in I Thessalonians 2:16, “forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved.” Paul views their being forbidden to speak as a bad thing precisely because words are essential for men to “be saved.” Men are called to God by the preaching of the Gospel (II Thess. 2:14).

The sad reality is the false-love gospel is exactly that – false love. Love to them means doing nice things for people. They gauge how loving they are by how well they are liked. True biblical love however, demonstrates love for God in that we obediently carry out His last command – “Go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature.” Biblical love also demonstrates love to our fellow man because we declare to them God's truth – what they need to hear, rather than what they want to hear. The false-love gospel only makes them into two-fold children of hell. Men who have embraced a religion, but know nothing of the risen Christ.
